

Dr. Rae Lynn Helman is the Director of Special Education and Student Services in LeRoy Central School in Western NY. She has served as a special education teacher, literacy coach, autism consultant, and adjunct professor. She is passionate about improving outcomes for all students, and believes strongly that we need educators prepared for the challenges facing today's children with disabilities. She lives in Batavia with her husband and enjoys spending time with her children and grandchildren.

She currently serves as Co-President of NYCASE. She is also very active with National CASE serving as a member of the annual SELS event in Washington D.C.